Religious Workers Meet.

At Great Gathering In Durham, Which Was Attended by Thousands, Mayor Griswold Pays Glowing Tribute to Negro Industry and Respectability.

By GEORGE F. KING.

The North Carolina interdenominational Sunday school and educational convention, which held its annual session in the auditorium of St. Joseph's A. M. E. church at Durham, N. C., recently, is one of the largest organized religious movements among Afro-Americans in the state. Dr. John E. Jackson, pastor of the church, was on hand and did everything possible to make it pleasant for the large delegations which came from all parts of the state. The convention was presided over by Colonel James H. Young of Raleigh. Colonel Young has rendered valuable services to the race as a religious leader and as a promoter in many movements for the uplift of his people in North Carolina. He has been president of the state Sunday school convention for two years, superintendent of the First Baptist church Sunday school at Raleigh for twentyfive years, grand master of the Masonic fraternity for several years, twice elected to the state legislature and was colonel of the Third North Carolina regiment during the Spanish-American war. Mayor W. A. Griswold of Durham, who made the address of welcome to the convention. said in the course of his address:

"I know of no city in our state where the colored people are more respectable or more prosperous than at Durham. I am sure were you to favor of Negro rights and being writsend out a committee from this body with instructions to investigate and report back the number of colored the people who own their homes or other valuable property even the best informed of Durham's leading colored people would be perfectly astonished at the progress in that direction that is being made by your race in this city. It is my opinion that the percentage of colored people owning property in Durham is greater than that of any other city of our size in the state. The white people of the county and city of Durham have dealt fairly with the colored people. They have given their children, both in the county and city, as good schools as they have the white and have done it willingly.

"As to the race question in Durham it has been my observation that the races get on amicably with little or no friction, each respecting one another's rights, it being the rarest occasion that one hears of any friction between the races. I believe it is the desire of every good citizen, white and colored, that these conditions continue, and they will continue so long as we concede that which is due one from the

Hon. John C. Dancy, recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia, responded to the welcome addresses in a forceful speech, replete with tones of sincerity. Mr. Dancy said: "This is a new era. The interdenominational Sunday school and educational convention makes its workers stronger, better and holier. Forty years ago people of the various denominations were hardly on speaking terms, but today it is different, and it is a splendid thing to be in a convention like this." The speaker impressed upon his audience, which was composed of both races, the pecessity of mutual understanding for a common happi-

Dr. James E. Shepard, who is contributing to the forces that are working for the uplift of the race and whose fertile brains gave birth to the movement for the training of our ministry and religious teachers, similar to the Winona Lake and Northfield Bible schools, was the dynamic power of the convention.

General Julian Carr, a white man who is imbued with a philanthropic spirit, was lionized by the convention for the deep interest which he manifested in the race and the new ideas of Dr. Shepard.

The addresses of Dr. Kilgo, president of Trinity college; Rev. S. S. Bost and Rev. J. W. Lynch, who are noted theologians and educators, were city, under the leadership of Profess I. H. Buchanan, rendered many pleasing selections of music.

"How Can the Business Man Help In Promoting the Growth of the Church and Sunday School?" was ably discussed by Mr. John Merrick.

Bishop Clinton's address caused enthusiasm to run high. It was in part as follows: "This is the young people's age such as no other age has been. There is more being done for the physical, intellectual, moral and religious training of young people today than ever before in the world's history. I must insist that if we are to have a strong, pure and noble race we must have men with clean lives, correct habits, capable and useful in whatever sphere of life their lot may

"The hope of a race, like that of a nation, is the boys. They are to be the men of the future, the fathers of throughout the north and east, for the future boys, of the future men. They are to be the leaders of the race in church, in society and in state. Because they are boys we should save them, save them from ignorance, thriftlessness, evil companionship and irregular habits."

Mrs. J. D. Martin's paper on "The Mother In the Sunday School" and Mrs. Lizzie Blackmon's paper on "Lions In the Way" were gems of thought. The next annual session of the convention will be held at Newbern, N. C., in 1910.

COURT REBUKES DUGRO.

Evening Journal In Favor of Fair

Treatment For the Negro. The following editorial, which appeared in the New York Evening Journal July 16, is another evidence of the strong sense of justice which still pervades the higher judicial courts of New York.

The fact that it appeared in a paper which has never heretofore been credited with a very decided stand in ten by Arthur Brisbane should give renewed hope and encouragement to race throughout the United States. Let the Negro continue to obey the law, be honest and industrious, faithful to his trusts, loyal to the government, and all will be well. The article says: "George W. Griffin, a Pullman car porter who was accused of stealing $20 and was arrested, was, upon trial, found innocent and was discharged. He sued the man who had him arrested. The jury gave Griffin a verdict or $2,500.

"Judge Dugro reduced the verdict to $300, saying, in substance, that a Negro accused of dishonesty did not suffer as much humiliation as a white man when unjustly arrested.

This appeared to the Evening Jour nal at the time a dangerous and unwise statement for a judge to make upon the bench. Colored citizens obey the laws as do others, and they are cordingly the president, Mrs. F. R. entitled to equal treatment, especially in a court of justice.

"Judge Dugro undoubtedly spoke without reflection. The appellate divi- ty-fifth street, New York. The attendsion, while confirming the amount of ance was large. ### WELCOME TENTH CAVALRY.

Big Reception In Store at New York For Gallant Regiment.

Interest in the homecoming of the Tenth cavalry regiment from the Philippine Islands is at high pitch among Afro-Americans in Greater New York. The regiment is well on the home

A committee consisting of J. Frank Wheaton, the Rev. Dr. W. H. Brooks, Captain Harvey A. Thompson, Collector Charles W. Anderson and the Rev. Dr. McMullen called upon Major General Leonard Wood at Governors island a few days ago and received his assurance that the regiment would be permitted to remain in the city a day and accept the hospitality of the Afro-

American population. General Woods also said the transport carrying the troops was due to arrive at New York on July 25. It is expected that the reception to the Tenth cavalry will be given at the Sixty-ninth regiment armory, Lexington avenue and Twenty-sixth street.

What's Wrong at Bordentown?

There must be something wrong with the management of the Bordentown (N. J.) Industrial School For Afro-Americans, as gleaned from the following facts:

There are 250 acres of land attached to the school, and 150 acres are under cultivation, but the farm is worked on shares by persons not attached to the school. The cooks are hired, and the laundry work is hired out, too, while hired help does most of the work. The state legislature appropriates a snug sum toward the expenses of this paper daily during the recent interdeschool yearly, but it does not seem to nomination Sunday school convention, day school were strong features of the take much note of how things are which was held in Durham. Empire State Organization the Result of the Influence of the National Association. First Annual Session at Bethel A. M. E. Church a Grand Success.

By Mrs. M. C. LAWTON. That the National Federation of Afro-American Women's Clubs, which met in Brooklyn, N. Y., in August, 1908, was an impetus to progressive womanhood has not only been substantially seen but effectively felt tional association. While club life among colored women has been an exponent of incalculable advantage, its full benefits were not realized in this section until the great work accomplished through organized efforts was revealed at the biennial session of the national association last summer. That the great state of New York should be outside of the breastworks of organized womanhood was more than the aggressive New York woman could tolerate. The call for a state organization last fall brought together over Afty women, representing various clubs in Brooklyn, New York city and Buffalo, at the White Rose Industrial Home For Colored Girls, New York, where amid cheers and enthusiasm the state federation which had long been dreamed of was organized.

The invitation to hold the first annual meeting of the federation in the city of Buffalo, N. Y., was accepted. But as the time of meeting approached it was discovered that owing to the distance there would not be many the could attend whereupon th executive committee decided that the first meeting would be more largely attended if held in New York. Ac-Keyser, issued a call to that effect. The convention was held a few days ago at Bethel A. M. E. church, Twendition of our young women, which proved of great profit to all present. The reports of the various clubs were read, all of which were filled with move. The election of officers resulted as follows: Mrs. F. R. Keyser, superintendent of the White Rose Inpresident; Miss Cordelia Ray, recording secretary; Miss S. Elizabeth Frazier, financial secretary: Miss Irene L Moorman, treasurer; Mrs. Marie Jackson Stewart, state organizer; Miss M. R. Lyons, chairman of the executive committee. Mrs. M. J. Zeno, who represented several Brooklyn clubs, is one of the prime movers of the state federation and is doing good work as a temperance advocate. Three distinct departments were establishedviz: The social, with Mrs. Emma S. Ransom, chairman; educational, Miss Florence L. Ray, chairman, and the civic, with Mrs. M. C. Lawton as chairman. With the election of officers the convention adjourned until the evening session.

At 8:45 the federation reconvened in the presence of an enthusiastic and representative audience. After a pleasing musical program, in which Mme. Virginia Scott and Clarence C. Clarke participated, and a dramatic reading by Miss Dora Cole, the president delivered her annual address, which was replete with wholesome a dvice, as was also the address of Miss M. R. ## BISHOP LAMPTO

Sorry if He Insulted Telephone Operator-Wants No Race Friction.

The communications given below, which fully explain themselves, have been accepted as a satisfactory settlement of the Bishop Lampton matter: Rev. Stevenson Archer, Greenville, Miss. My Dear Sir-Referring to your con versation at the depot in Greenville the morning I left, in which you advised me of the report that I had insulted or offended one of the young lady telephone operators or friends of hers, I beg to say that I utterly disclaim having said or done anything intended to offend or insult the young lady or any of her friends and sincerely regret if I used any expres sion which would bear such construction, and if so I cheerfully withdraw i and apologize for it.

I have never asked or stood for social recognition or equality. You have known me for a quarter of a century, know what my life has been and can bear me out in this. My home has always been in your community. I hope to spend the remainder of my life there. I believe that the south is the best place for my people and I would feel that I was false to then and lacking in my duty as a Christian if I ever said or did anything to bring about race friction or cause bad feeling among the white people toward my race. I earnestly request that you represent the matter in the right light to the community. Respectfully, E. W. LAMPTON.

To the Public: We are glad to be able to say that the foregoing communication is satisfactory to those interested and the spirit and tone of it such as to remove any hos tility which may have existed to the re turn of E. W. Lampton to Greenville. STEVENSON ARCHER, J. D. SMYTHE.

BYRON ARMSTRONG, WESTFIELD, IND.

In the last edition of your paper, I noticed an article on the school system

This 20th century of progress and bers and visitors are expected at both centralization is certainly a great age, and will go down in history as such, but if the Negroes of America and our its own and has steadily progressed. state make the mistake of demanding separate schools for us, the history of our race will be decline and disunion our race will be decline and disunion. The mind and its thoughts govern our and last but not least the admirable action,. If we Negroes think more of the "Jim Crowism" than of Christian in this state, our actions will tend toward and be on "Jim Crowism."

.The reason why conditions for the Negro to-day in Indiana appear worst, is because of the fact that we are ever thinking, talking and looking to be mistreated. Carlyle tried to reform the world by preaching about the evil things in it Emerson reformed the world by preaching about the good things in it. If this principal will work in one case, it will in the other. So let us be up and looking on the bright side of this matter Evil retards progress, knowledge and righteousness According to present day statistics, there is more progress, more knowlege and more righteousness than ever hefore in the world; therefore there is less evil and the hopes for the Negro is brighter than ever before.

There is one thing in this world, that men have thought, talked and wrote about for centuries: this is "World Federation or the uniting and agreeing of all nations races and men, on all common points and laws." This will be wonderful, this will be grand, to logic, the reverse would be know-ledge and education are the mothers of all good, and as righteousness is absolutely neccessary before we can have World Federation, it is very essential that we have knowledge and education in the best form. But can the Negro get these in the best form, without the tried ideas of the white teach- Courts will be new legislation. ers, whose learning and culture dates from the time of man. We answer No! No! a thousand times No! Hence not getting them in the best form is a hindrance to this great institution

Mixed schools will get the white children and the black children used to each other. "Train up a child in the way he shall go and he will not depart from it." If this be true, then these children will live together in peace when old, for they did in childhood; hence unity; hence a step in favor of World Federation. As to the colored teachers, let them struggle on as the rest of us are doing, for the day is near at hand when they will not suffer. Some may say we are not as intelligent in the north as they are in the south, and they say this is the reason we do not have stores, banks, etc in the north like they do in the south. Again we answer No! No! tis not so. Look at the contrast in the two climates. one hot and a breeder of stupidness and ignorance. Does not history back this up? The other, cool and a breeder of life, spirit and learning. Look at Europe, then look at Africa, these will prove my statement. The northern Negro not only has this advantage, but also the whites of the north are more cultured and refined, The Colored Republican League of south etc, they do not consider the election is being opposed by Samuel Kings County is authority for the black population in the north. wish to say through your paper that the report now being circulated, that I, in company with certain other men, visited the members of the School Board, and petitioned, on behalf of the colored people here, for a Colored High School is absolutely untrue. I hereby challenge the author of this malicious falsehood to come forward and substantiate, before an honest public, or confess, by silence, that it is untrue. WUNKING THEIR WAY CUT.

Afro-Americans Breaking Away From Crowded City Life.

Without the beating of any tomtoms or the sounding of any loud alarms there is being built up within a few miles of Philadelphia, at Sharon Hill, an Afro-American town which promises to prove an attraction to our people from the crowded city streets. The pastors of the churches and others of the race are interesting themselves in building up the town, and, besides several tracts of land that already had been purchased, some of our enterprising business men have recently purchased the old Nonsall farm and will parcel it off into building lots.

The members of the First African Baptist church in Sharon Hill, of which the Rev. C. T. Wilcher is pastor, recently purchased two lots on Clifton avenue, which is to be about the center of the village, and upon it is to be built a new church edifice.

In the neighborhood of the proposed church there are springing up many business enterprises, such as grocery stores, restaurants, barber shops, real estate offices, and near by are several large truck farms

In order to afford employment to the members of the race a brick manufacturing company has been incorporated and has opened up a yard at Sharon

New Bank Opened at Dallas.

The opening of the Penny Savings bank at Dallas, Tex., the other day was an interesting event. The board of directors had previous to the opening day issued invitations to the people of Dallas and vicinity to be present, and they came in large numbers. Each visitor was requested to register his name and address in a book which was provided for that purpose. "Without some money and some property there is but little appreciation for our people. This is the day of accumulation," said the directors to the people. The three ranking officers of the bank are Dr. G. I. Jackson, president; B. R. Bluett, cashier, and M. C. Cooper, vice

You can fool all the people some of the time, and some of the people all the time, but you can't fool all the people all the time. Many theatrical managers have tried to do this to their sorrow. The public is a loyal fellow, but once you try fool him, and he catches you, he never forgives or for-

No amusement organization in the country has a more loyal following than Richards & Pringle's Famous Georgia Minstrels. Probably this is because they have always kept faith with and never tried to fool their patrons. Each year they bring a show absolutely dependable as to cleanliness and quality. Each year, too, they give more than they promise.

If anyone doubts the policy of absolute honesty in the profession of cater ing to the public. they have only to look at the crowded houses and consult the box office statements of the theaters where these dusky entertainers play to be convinced that "honesty is the best policy."

You cannot find to day a minstrel organization in existence that started Our own FREE Messenger Service at the same time as "The Georgias," as this company is often styled. Why is this?

The question is easily answered: Honesty. that's all.

Special Notice.

The Presiding E der of the Richmond District announces that there will be Basket meetings held at the following places on the district;

Carthage, July 25th. Hill's Chapel, August 1st. Fairmount, August 8th. Fountain City, August 22nd. Cabin Creek, Sept 5th Chas. Hunter, P. E.

The Indianapolis World It is understood that Wm. Watson Woollen would consent to serve in the city council if the people should show an unmistakable preference for his services It would be hard to find a more ideal man for the position, and if Mr. Woollen consents to serve that settle it. The people will do the rest. In fact, they are tempted to draft him, should he show reluctance in coming forward, for there is a general desire to make up the council from the best material, and there is none better than Mr. Wooleen. There will be no talk of graft in connection with any office he holds. Like Caesar's wife he is above suspición. He is known of Clifton Gordon is reported ill at his all men in this community, and no Roses gave an entertainment last Friday night at the A. M. E. church for ed or dropped the slightest hint reflecting upon his honor. Mr. Woollen is an old-time citizen here, of an old-time family, and no one has the intests of Indianapolis more at heart than he. He knows the city's needs as few men do, and would lose sleep devising schemes to make it happier, more properous and more beautify. Being an excellent business man, of judgment fine and true and a citizen beyond reproach, he would be a great acquisition to the council. By all means let him be elected unanimously. He should have opponent, but to go in by acclamation. Such men are of inestimable value to the city and appear in our offices all to seldom. We need them and whenever there is an opportunity to secure their services, we should make sure of do-

Anotherstrong point of Mr. Woollen is the universality of his popularity. Without regard to race, color, notion ality, religion or politics, everybody esteems him. None would fear that this good man would discriminate against them. The poorest as well as the richest, the proud as well as the humble, the prominent as well as the lowly, would have even-handed justice dealt out to them. Mr. Woollen would play no favorits; he never does. Like Abou Ben Adhem, he loves his fellow men and is prouder of that title than any that man can mention. He loves birds and all the dumb animals, putting in much of his time, helping those who can help themselves. Only good men, the best of them, show this trait and wherever it is safe to say that no man need fear unkind action on the part of him who entertains such feelings. If Mr. Woollen will consent to make the race, the World will take off its coat for him. It will go out in into the highways and byways to tell the people what an excellent candidate they have and urge them with all its zeal to support him. But this would hardly be necessary. The name of William Watson Woollen on any ticket would procure

The negroes of Terre Haute and the whole state of Indiana, can and should arrange for a gigantic business organization for negroes. Every man, woman and child should be in it. must learn to organize such business for ourselves. Too many of us depend entirely upon our white neighbors. We sit down and wait for him to formuilate and organize everything, while we sit idly by. We patronize him in business. We put forth none or scarce-ly no effort to help our race along. Why not organize ourselves into some like this? We will say, let 1000 or 2000 persons pay 10 cents a week for 10 one will have paid $1, which will equal $1,000.00 or $2,000.00. A certificate can be issued to each person for $1.00, which gives them one share in the company. He will then become interested in starting a department store with the $1,000 or $2,000 already collected. This is a start, now if each one continues for another 10 weeks or for a year, you see the surplus gets large and larger, and the dividends derived will also get larger. Lesson IV.—Third Quarter, For July 25, 1909. Higher Court

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Acts xvii, 16-34 Memory Verse, 29-Golden Text, John iv, 24-Commentary Prepared by [Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.] In this lesson we find Paul at Athens, which might be called the seat of earthly wisdom, and while he waited for Silas and Timothy to come to him from Berea his spirit was stirred as he saw the idolatry of the city, and, knowing that the same Jesus who saved him would save them, too, he could not refrain from preaching Jesus to them, not only in the synagogues of the Jews, but publicly in the market every day and at all times to such devout people as were willing to listen to him. Some of the lovers of wisdom took him to Mars hill, and there he discoursed to them, as recorded in the lesson today-not reasoning out of the Scriptures, as with the Jews, who knew the Scriptures, but preaching Jesus to them as the Creator and as the Judge of all mankind, commanding all men everywhere to repent and turn to Him that they might be saved.

We will not have the zeal for souls he did-"without strength, ungodly, sinners, enemies" (Rom. v, 6-10), "children of disobedience under the prince of the power of the air, children of wrath, without Christ, having no hope and without God in the world (Eph. ii, 2, 3, 12). Then we must have the mind of God toward them, not willing that any should perish, but believing that He would have all to be saved by receiving Jesus, who gave Himself for our sins and was made a curse for us (Gal. i, 4; iii, 13). Paul saw in these wise but foolish Athenians men for whom Christ died, and he longed for their deliverance from the prince of this world and from the powers of darkness. He took as his topic the inscription on one of their many altars, "To the unknown God," and he preached to them the only living and true God, the Creator of all things, for if any man will come to God he must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him (Heb. xi, 6). The opening words of Paul's discourse concerning the Creator bring to mind Gen. i, 1; John i, 1-3; Col. i. 16; Heb. i, 1-3, along with Ps. xxxiii, 6; Isa. xl, 28; Jer. xxxii, 17; Acts iv, 24, and many more. His giving to all life and breath and all things and that in Him we live and move and have our being (verses 25, 28) make us think of Dan. v, 23, "The God in whose hand thy breath is and whose are all thy ways," and of Heb. iv, 13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in His sight, but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of Him with whom we have to That He has made of one blood all of the earth and appointed the bounds of their habitation (verse 26) does not seem to be quite in accord with the love of one's native land that so many sing about. Let the world sing, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," but the Christian whose citizenship is in heaven and who prays, "Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven," should take a wider view and sing, "All nations whom Thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord, and shall glorify Thy name" (Ps. lxxxvi, 9), "All nations shall come and worship before thee" (Rev. xv. 4), and live anywhere on earth with equal cheerfulness if only through us the church, His body, may be gathered from all nations and the time of His worldwide kingdom hastened. It is His desire that all should seek Him and find Him, but while many are ignorantly feeling after Him how can they ever find Him if no one ever tells them of Him? Does it not seem clear as the light that the one thing a believer is on earth for is to declare to all the righteousness of God in Christ; that all who will may obtain this righteousness and be justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus? This Jesus, Son of God, whom He raised from the dead, He has ordained to be Judge of all the world, and therefore He commands all men to repent that He may not have to say to them, "Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his horrible doctrine and will not tolerate the thought of it and have no use for a God who would make such a place or send any one to it. All such are count of the sudden death of her blinded by the god of this world, for whom the awful place was prepared, and if they persist in their blindness and in rejecting the gift of eternal life their doom will by their own choice be as awful as the record reads.

The day of judgment here spoken of will last at least a thousand years, at the beginning of which there will be judgment seat of Christ; then the judgment of the living nations, when we come with Christ in His glory to ludges of Appellate Division of Supreme Court at New York Do Not Share Sentiments of Lower Court as to Rights of Negroes and Whites.

Again the case of George W. Griffin. the Afro-American Pullman car porter. against Daniek M. Brady, in which Justice Dugro of New York said some weeks ago that the false arrest of the Negro didn't humiliate him as much as if he had been a white man, has come before the public. It was brought up a few days ago by the action of the appellate division in ordering a new trial of the case, but with the dorse the opinions of Justice Dugro on the rights and standing of Negroes and whites.

Justice Dugro's decision had caused wide comment. It was commented on was a porter of a train on which Brady rode to Montreal: When 'the white man got off he found that his cardcase, which had contained $20, trate and got a warrant for Griffin. who was arrested. But there was little evidence, and he was acquitted. Coming to New York, Griffin sued Brady for false arrest, and on the trial the jury brought in a verdict of $2,500. Justice Dugro reduced the amount to $300.

He held that he "was a porter, and while he is just as good as the president of the United States and if he is paid for it, it would be a bad argument to say he is just as good in many senses. He would not be hurt just as much if put in prison as every other man would be. That depends on a man's standing, what his circumstances are, and, if he is a colored man, the fact that he is a colored man is to be considered.

"You cannot say that he is just the same as a white man when you come to say how much his shame will suffer. He might suffer more. But, after all, what are the probabilities about it? Is it likely that when a colored man is arrested and imprisoned he tinctly announced that it does not indorse the opinions of the supreme court justice. This is what the appellate division had to say:

"This is a motion for a reargument of an appeal to this court from an order of the trial term setting aside a verdict and ordering a new trial in an action for malicious prosecution. There der of the trial term setting aside a is no ground for a reargument. This court upon mature deliberation and discussion affirmed the order appealed from by a vote of 3 to 2. The affirmance by this court without an opinion of an order of the trial court, made in In the Superior Court of Marion County in the the exercise of its discretion, setting State of Indiana aside the verdict of a jury is not to be taken as an approval in any degree of the expression of the trial court of its views in colloquy with counsel. All that is determined is that this court has declined to reverse an order made in the discretion of the trial term directing a new trial, upon which new trial all the issues are to be presented de novo to another jury. The motion is denied, with $10 costs."

MORAL REFORM NEEDED.

Street Corner Gangs Damning the Race-Dr. Tindley Suggests Remedy. The Beacon Light institute at Philadelphia has for its main object the civic and moral betterment of Afro-Americans. It is carried on by the Second Emancipation league, of which the Rev. C. A. Tindler, is provided in the Rev. C. A. Tindl the Rev. C. A. Tindley is president. In certain sections of most large cities our people are very numerous by reason of high rents for better living quarters which the majority are unable to pay. And, again, there is an element of our people that seem determined to carouse and hang around the street corners. Dr. Tindley has wisely suggested that in such communities individual committees should be formed whose duty it should be to conduct crusades of persuasion among the objectionable element with the hope of reforming them in manners and morals. We would like to see such committees formed in all the large cities throughout the United States where such conditions exist. If this street corner element cannot be persuaded to keep off, then legal steps should be taken to make them do so. These street corner gangs are damning the race.-Dodson.
